

CHIEF OF STUDENT EDUCATION SERVICES

Purpose Statement

The job of Chief of Student Education Services is done for the purpose/s of planning, aligning, developing, implementing, directing, and evaluating the district's student services; providing leadership and supervision to various instructional support departments; providing information and recommendations to the Superintendent, staff and/or public; providing administrative and technical staff assistance to the superintendent; and addressing a wide variety of administrative processes, within the context of the District's Strategic Plan.

Essential Functions

- Provides leadership, direction, support, and supervision for district office student support departments (Student Support Services, Adult Education, and Alternative Education) to ensure programs approved by the Board of Trustees are fully and appropriately implemented in all schools; works collaboratively with other district leadership to ensure effective coordination, support, and utilization of all programs allocated to sites.
- Plans, directs and coordinates with other district leadership comprehensive articulation between programs and between school levels; works to ensure effective coordination, support, and utilization of all programs allocated to sites; initiates plans and implements activities designed to make schools more effective.
- Coordinates with the Chief Instructional Officer in assessing curriculum and academic approaches to seek out new and improved methods to positively influence the learning environment for students and decrease the drop out rate.
- Trains and evaluates the performance of assigned staff; interview and select employees and recommend transfers, reassignment, termination and disciplinary actions.
- Directs, coordinates, implements, and evaluates district educational services in accordance with state and federal laws, district regulations and other specially funded program requirements.
- Provides technical expertise, information, and assistance to the Superintendent regarding assigned functions; assist in the formulation and development of policies, procedures, and programs; advise the Superintendent of unusual trends or problems and recommend appropriate corrective action.
- Provides administrative direction and coordination in the achievement of district goals to the following departments: Adult Education, Alternative Education, and Student Support Services.
- Implements the superintendent's initiatives regarding student achievement goals and objectives for the District; provides continuous evaluation of progress toward achievement of these goals and objectives.
- Monitors assigned programs and related financial activity for the purpose of ensuring that performance objectives are met, allocations are accurate, revenues and expenses are within budget and/or operational practices are followed.
- Recommends goals and objectives; assists in the development of policies and procedures; administers policies and procedures related to responsibilities.

- Revises and keeps current educational services related board policies and regulations.
- Plan, organize and implement long and short-term programs and activities designed to develop assigned programs and services.
- Responds to a variety of complaints, questions, and requests for information about district-wide programs, and procedures; participates on a variety of boards and commissions; attends and participates in professional groups and committees.
- Performs a variety of personnel functions (e.g. interviewing, hiring, evaluating, training, staffing, scheduling, supervising, etc.) for the purpose of providing efficient departmental operations throughout the District.
- Coordinates activities within assigned responsibilities with those of other departments and outside agencies and organizations; provides staff assistance to others as needed.
- Collects, analyzes, and presents complex technical data; identifies potential problems and evaluates alternative solutions; prepares sound recommendations.
- Communicate with other administrators, personnel, and outside organizations to coordinate activities and programs, resolve issues and conflicts, and exchange information; develop policies and procedures to ensure effective and efficient management controls.

Other Functions

- Performs other related duties, as assigned, for the purpose of ensuring an efficient and effective work environment.

Job Requirements: Minimum Qualifications

Skills, Knowledge and Abilities

SKILLS are required to perform multiple, highly complex, technical tasks with a need to occasionally upgrade skills in order to meet changing job conditions. Specific skills required to satisfactorily perform the functions of the job include: leadership and organization; analyze and interpret data; planning and managing projects; operating standard office equipment; and preparing and maintaining accurate records.

KNOWLEDGE is required to oversee departmental budget, including calculations using fractions, percents, and/or ratios; review and interpret highly technical information, write technical materials, and/or speak persuasively to implement desired actions; and analyze situations to define issues and draw conclusions. Specific knowledge required to satisfactorily perform the functions of the job includes: principles and practices of educational administrative program development, administration and evaluation; programs/services typical to a large secondary school district; principles and practices of organization, administration and personnel management in a public secondary school district; general school district policies, rules, and regulations; budget administration; relevant local, state and federal regulations; principles of employer/employee relations; and stages of student development.

ABILITY is required to organize a significant number of activities, meetings, and/or events; routinely gather, collate, and/or classify data; and use job-related equipment. Flexibility is required to work with others in a variety of circumstances; analyze data utilizing a variety of complex processes; and operate equipment using standardized methods. Ability is also required to work with a significant diversity of individuals and/or groups; work with data of widely varied types and/or purposes; and utilize job-related equipment. In working with others, independent problem solving is required to analyze issues and create action plans. Problem solving with data requires analysis based on organizational objectives; and problem solving with equipment is limited to moderate. Specific abilities required to satisfactorily perform the functions of the job include: adapting to changing work priorities; communicating with diverse groups; maintaining confidentiality; meeting deadlines and schedules; setting priorities; working as part of a team; and working with detailed information/data.

Responsibility

Responsibilities include: working independently under broad organizational policies to achieve organizational objectives; managing major organizational components; and determining the use of funds. Utilization of significant resources from other work units is sometimes required to perform the job's functions. There is great opportunity to significantly impact the organization's services.

Working Environment

The usual and customary methods of performing the job's functions require the following physical demands: some lifting, carrying, pushing, and/or pulling; some stooping, kneeling, crouching, and/or crawling; and significant fine finger dexterity. Generally the job requires 50% sitting, 25% walking, and 25% standing. The job is performed under a generally hazard free environment.

Physical Requirements

Hearing and speaking to exchange information and make presentations; seeing to perform assigned duties; sitting or standing for extended periods of time; dexterity of hands and fingers to operate a computer keyboard and other office equipment; kneeling, bending at the waist, and reaching overhead, above the shoulders and horizontally, to retrieve and store files and supplies; lifting light objects.

Education/Experience

Master's degree in educational leadership or related field is required. A minimum of five years of increasingly responsible in a complex organizational setting. Experience and knowledge of alternative educational settings with district office division/department experience is preferred.

Required Testing

None Specified

Certificates Required

California Teaching Credential
California Administrative Services Credential
Valid Drivers Licenses

Continuing Educ./Training

None Specified

Clearances

Pre-placement Physical Exam; TB Clearance; and Criminal Justice Fingerprint/Background Clearance

Sweetwater Union High School District programs and activities shall be free from discrimination based on age, gender, gender identity or expression, or genetic information, sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, ethnic group identification, marital or parental status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation; the perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics." SUHSD Board Policy 0410